Persia House is pleased to invite you to the annual Sadih Class
Celebration for the year 2012, Saturday, February 11th,
Multicultural Center of Portland State University, 7-9pm
1825 SW Broadway, Portland, OR 97207.

We dedicate this night to the Persian epic poet Firdawsi (circa 935-1020). The program includes but is not limited to recitation and selected analysis of the interrelation of Sadih and the discovery of fire, moral values, power of knowledge in the works of Firdawsi but also will include a film about Firdawsi's masterwork Shahnamih, storytelling, naqqali, ballet of Zal and Rudabeh, dance performances of Zurkhaneh, welcome to Persia on big screen, audience participation, and more. Admission is free. All are welcome.

Tea and cookies are provided. Feel free to bring your favorite seasonal food and snacks to share. INFO (503) 725-5214 or www.persia.pdx.edu
